

Hope Corps Privacy Promise

Our Privacy Promise to you

Since our inception in 2014 our stakeholders have trusted Hope Corps with their personal information. Whether you are a Pastor, donor, a volunteer, an organization, student or a community partner, our commitment to conduct business honestly and protect your privacy is at the heart of our Privacy Promise.

We respect your confidentiality

Hope Corps requires that your personal information be held in strict confidence. We use your information only for its intended business purpose. We do not sell or trade your information to other organizations or individuals.

We protect your information

Hope Corps takes every possible measure to insure that your information is not compromised in any way. If you are a participant in one of our ITW's or programs, and with your permission, we provide a list of participants to those attending the class or ITW. This list includes your name and email address. Other than as indicated, no one other than Hope Corps staff has access to your information.

Our privacy promise extends online to our Internet website. Online event registration information is transmitted via a secure server using encryption technology.

If you choose to send us email, we may retain the contents of your email message, our reply and your email address as part of our ongoing customer service efforts. We reserve the right to contact you after you have contacted us and may send future email and/or surveys to you about Hope Corps. You may notify us via email if you wish to discontinue electronic communication.

We keep accurate records

We keep your personal information as accurate, complete, and up to date as is required to fulfill the purpose(s) for which you provided us with your personal information. Upon request in writing we will remove your personal information from our databases, except where legislation or regulation requires our retention of it (for example, charitable giving history tied to income tax receipts.)
